

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9

Your Online Clozette.

With the online craze about everything especially fashion, I'm talking about explosion of...

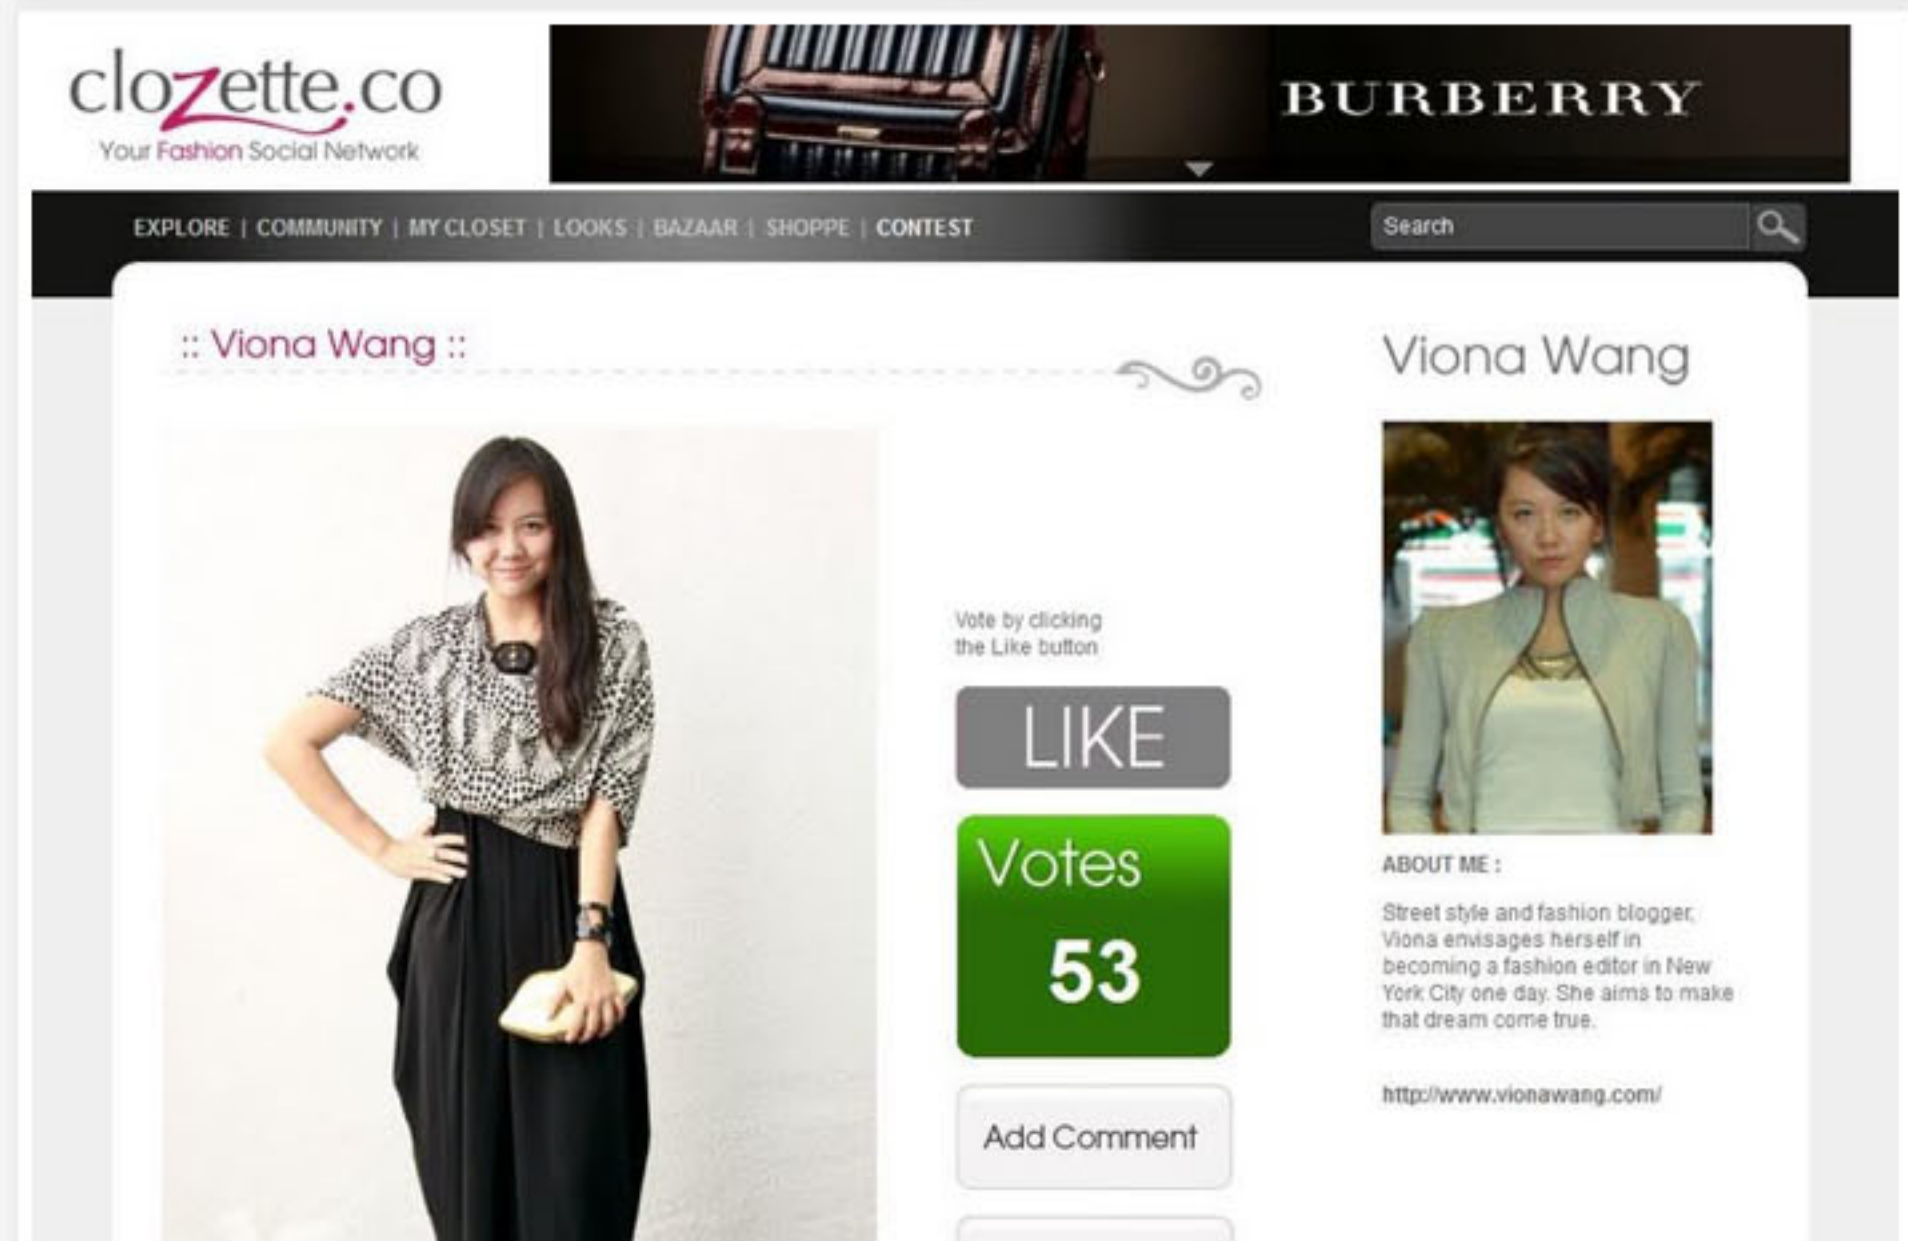

3 people like this. Be the first of your friends.

Fashion blogs and communities where people share photos of their daily outfits and latest buys, Clozette.co has been created to provide all the fashion-goers (male fashionistas may soon have their chance) a platform to share, sell, buy, discuss and know about fashion.

For the launch, nine of us were invited for a styling stint, Clozette Couturier Contest, where we got to choose and style our favourite look (or looks) from Clozette.co's selection of local designer labels. Here's mine:

The dress from Quinn, is a great basic piece to style with, so I matched it with a pattern top from MU. The top is rather baggy, hence, I decided to knot it at the bottom to give it shape. A friend said the shoes from Sole2Sole is a little matchy-matchy but I'm totally in love with their zebra print heels! It is a breeze to walk in and the design is one of a kind. Golden lips clutch is from Sole2Sole; accessories from Fuzz and Rouge World. Sometimes, it is best to stick to monochromatic colours when it comes to styling with prints; it makes them stand out.

A lucky voter gets to win a Coach Poppy Groovy bag (here) so if you like my look, do support me! If not, do tell me why. Voting ends on 31 August. All the best!

Oh by the way, Happy National Day!
